

DENTAL PRACTICE ACT

Unit 1: Scope of Practice

TOPIC C: Continuing Education and License Renewal

- _____ licenses and permits need to be renewed every _____ years.
- It is a _____ offense to perform licensed and/or permitted duties with an _____, _____, or _____ license.
- Your license/permit is due for renewal in your _____ month in the _____ or _____ year depending on what year you were born.
- Let's figure YOUR information out:
 - You received your license/permit in _____
 - Your birthday is _____
 - Your first renewal will be _____
 - Your second and all subsequent units will be _____
- Renewing your license/permit is done on the _____ portal.
- Fingerprints may be required by the Dental Board periodically during the renewal process. True False
- Continuing education units are NOT required for the _____ license renewal.
- Licenses can be verified on the dental board's website. True False (circle one)
I don't think I actually said this – but go to the DBC website and see if you can find where you can check out someone's license (maybe look for a license/permit of someone you know).
- If you don't change your address with the Dental Board within _____ days of your move, you could be _____ and/or _____.
- You can request a duplicate license/permit on the _____ system and you will have to pay _____.
- While a license/permit is expired, you cannot _____.
- If you let your license expire, it can be renewed within _____ years, but if you wait longer than that, it is _____ and you would have to start all over again.
- Putting a license in the "inactive" status just prevents you from having to complete your _____ units. You still need to _____ your license every two years.
- Upon reactivation of the license, _____ units of continuing education must be sent with the renewal form.
- Dentists need _____ units every 2 years, RDHAPs need _____ units every two years, everyone else needs _____ units every two years.
- CE units can be held over from one renewal period to another. True False (circle one)
- What is the maximum number of units you can count in one day? _____

BY THE WAY, I FORGOT TO STATE THAT IF YOU HOLD MORE THAN ONE LICENSE, YOU ONLY NEED TO DO THE AMOUNT OF UNITS REQUIRED FOR YOUR "HIGHEST" LICENSE. Let's say you are an RDHAP but you are also an RDA and are an OAP holder. You are required to do 35 units every two years (not 85 which would be adding the units up for all licenses).

18. M_____ classes are credited towards the total units required for your license category.
